Old favorites, new flavors: What's cooking at Frisch's this November

Original recipe pumpkin pie returns for Thanksgiving alongside the Reuben, Rachel, new protein-packed bowls and diner classics

CINCINNATI (Nov. 5, 2026) – Thanksgiving is just a few weeks away, and a familiar holiday favorite is back at Frisch's. The restaurant's Original Recipe Pumpkin Pie joins a fall menu that brings back longtime favorites while introducing some new twists on diner classics. Check dessert off your holiday to-do list and order ahead today here.

Frisch's Original Recipe Pumpkin Pie joins some other familiar favorites making a comeback.

The Reuben and Rachel sandwiches, guest favorites from years past, have returned as part of a menu that mixes classic diner staples with new ways to fuel the day. The Reuben is stacked with corned beef, Swiss cheese, sauerkraut and Thousand Island dressing on grilled rye bread. Its lighter counterpart, the Rachel, swaps in oven-roasted turkey and crisp coleslaw while keeping the Swiss, Thousand Island and grilled rye. The two returning sandwiches join another diner staple already on the menu, the Patty Melt.

But there's more than nostalgia on the menu.

Frisch's has also introduced two new protein bowls as part of its "New Ways to Fuel Your Day" lineup. The Breakfast Protein Bowl packs 47 grams of protein with scrambled eggs, two sausage patties, bacon and cheese. The Big Boy Protein Bowl delivers 44 grams of protein with a half-pound of beef patties, American cheese and pickles over lettuce.

Breakfast has another new addition with French Toast Breakfast Sandwiches, featuring eggs, cheese and a choice of sausage or bacon between two slices of French toast for a sweet-and-savory spin on the traditional breakfast sandwich.

With cooler weather settling in, Frisch's all-you-can-eat hot dinner bars are also back at participating locations. Brupper, Frisch's breakfast-for-supper bar, features scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage links, hash browns, pancakes, biscuits and gravy and more. The Taco Bar includes seasoned beef, shredded chicken, queso, cilantro lime rice, beans and all the fixings, while the rotating Dinner Bar features comfort-food favorites including chicken n' dumplings, baked fish, meatloaf, mashed potatoes and gravy, green beans and mac 'n' cheese. Each includes unlimited access to Frisch's Soup & Salad Bar.

The updated menu is now available at participating Frisch's locations.
